

Human Rights:
Social Work's Powerful Role in Impacting Change in the Global Society
Post- Test

1. Brazilian Educator, Paulo Freire's Therapy for Liberation includes the following 3 components (Praxis) of social change: First: See the problem or situation lived by our client, second: Analyze the factors that contribute to the problem and third: Act to change problem or situation. Of these three components, which, in general, does Mr. Bailey claim Social Workers have mastered?
  - a. See and analyze
  - b. See and act
  - c. Analyze and act
  - d. None of the above

2. The Center for Work Force Studies was a direct result of what initiative:
  - a. Social Work Public Education Campaign
  - b. 2005 Social Work Congress
  - c. Social Work Reinvestment Initiative
  - d. Dept. of Human Rights and International Affairs

3. The NASW Department of Human Rights and International Affairs joined with what international organization to work on the eradication of global poverty?
  - a. United Nations
  - b. International Federation of Social Work
  - c. The One Campaign
  - d. All of the above

4. Dr. Ruth Dean discusses the idea of Social Care vs. Social Control, in this she hopes to refocus the discussions on access to care rather than controlling the environment of our clients. What social agenda is used to exemplify this theory with in this training content.
  - a. The needle program for IV drug users
  - b. Women's right to choice
  - c. Unemployment Insurance
  - d. None of the above

5. Who is quoted as saying: "Poverty is the worst form of violence"?
  - a. Amanda Barusch
  - b. Dr. Jeffrey Brackett
  - c. Mahatma Gandhi
  - d. Gloria White Hammond

---Complete and mail with evaluation form to: NASW, 14 Beacon St., #409, Boston, MA 02108---

NAME (please print): _____ Day Tel: _____

ADDRESS: _____ ZIP: _____