

SOCIAL WORK WITH IMMIGRANTS AND REFUGEES
POST-TEST

1. 1 in 5 children is an immigrant or has an immigrant parent.
True
False
2. Phase Oriented Treatment is an experimental form of treatment for psychological trauma and is not widely accepted.
True
False
3. Victims of severe forms of trafficking are not entitled to any of the benefits that refugees receive.
True
False
4. Anthropologist/Psychiatrist Arthur Kleinman uses the term illness to refer to: (circle all that apply)
A. The personal and social experience of disease as well as the meaning attributed to it.
B. The shaping of disease into behavior and experience
C. Malfunctioning of biological and/or psychological processes
D. All of the above
5. Explanatory model refers to ideas shared by practitioner and patient about the cause of an episode of sickness and effective treatment.
True
False
6. Misunderstandings in a cross-cultural encounter are often the result of the patient and treater having different explanatory models.
True
False
7. Emotional distress is generally described in terms of bodily aches and pains in Asian (and many other) cultures.
True
False
8. Using family members to interpret for a non English speaking client is a good idea because the family knows the client best.
True
False
9. The “First wave of Vietnamese migration refers to the “boat people.”
True
False
10. The principle that an individual’s beliefs and actions should be interpreted in terms of his or her own culture, rather than from the values of our culture is known as:
A. Universalism
B. Ethnocentrism
C. Cultural relativism
D. Biological determinism

NAME (please print): _____ Day Tel: _____

ADDRESS: _____ ZIP: _____

This Test is for the single use of the purchaser only. Copies and faxes are not accepted.