

Internet Enabled Addictions
by David Greenfield, PhD

POST TEST - 3 CEs

All questions and answers are derived from the content of the taped program.

Please choose the (one) correct answer for each question.

1. The term “addiction” is the most appropriate term used in describing Internet-enabled problems.
 - A. True
 - B. False

2. Negative effects on marriages and significant relationships are the most common Internet problem seen in clinical practice.
 - A. True
 - B. False

3. Men and Women use/abuse the Internet.
 - A. No difference in use/abuse
 - B. Women never abuse the Internet
 - C. Both use/abuse but with some differences in patterns

4. Cyber-sex leads to real-time sexual contact
 - A. Never
 - B. Always
 - C. Sometimes

5. There is legal liability and risk for employers with regard to an employee’s use or abuse of the Internet in the workplace.
 - A. True
 - B. False

6. According to Dr. Greenfield and current research, staring at the computer for long periods of time can put a person:
 - A. Into a coma
 - B. Into a mild trance
 - C. To sleep

7. As Dr. Greenfield discusses key findings of significant research into Internet Enabled Addictions, he states:
- A. 0% of those reporting shop on-line
 - B. 0% of those reporting use internet to alter feelings
 - C. 2% of those reporting are gamers
8. Dr. Greenfield found that 50% of his compulsive internet users/abuser patients have which underlying affective disorder:
- A. Anger
 - B. Paranoia
 - C. Depression
9. Patients experience guilt and shame during internet withdrawal.
- A. True
 - B. False
10. Psychotropic medications are not an appropriate intervention in patients with compulsive sexual behaviors.
- A. True
 - B. False

Name: _____
NASW Membership #: _____ <input type="checkbox"/> Not a member
Street Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip code: _____
Day time Phone: _____ Email address: _____

